The fund has returned 15.4% since inception in November 2017.

“To receive this prestigious award is evidence of an incredibly strong achievement from the fund management team, headed by Staffan Östlin and supported by co-manager Johan Eriksson, during a year that has been particularly challenging in the equity markets. We summarize 2018, the first full year for the fund, with a return of 8.7% while Carnegie Small & Midcap Return Index dropped -2.3%, and enter 2019 with confidence” says CEO Stefan Gavelin.
